METHOD OF INSTRUCTION.

Instruction will be given by lectures, reading and catechising. The lectures are intended to present all the leading principles of the common law applicable to the subject, and the modification of the common law by statute; and to give illustrations of the applications of the common and statute law. Special attention is given to the statutes in force in Maryland, and to peculiarities of the law in that State, where there are such; but the reasons for these statutory modifications and local peculiarities are explained so that the student may in a short time acquaint himself with the local peculiarities of the law in any State in which he may practice.

Readings from text books will be assigned on the subjects treated of in the lectures.

The catechising at each lecture will be on the subject discussed in the preceding lecture and on the assigned readings.

LIBRARY AND BUILDINGS.

The buildings of the several departments of the University of Maryland are all situated upon the corner of Lombard and Greene Streets, the Law School having removed to its new building there on the 1st of January, 1884. Connected with the lecture hall is a large and pleasant reading-room and study, for the use of students, containing a carefully selected library of text books upon the subjects embraced in the course of study, volumes of Leading Cases, the English Common Law, United States and Maryland Reports, Digests, Statutes, etc., as well as many of the modern and best works on American and English History and Politics. The tables are supplied with the prominent Law Reviews, and the library is annually growing in size and value by the addition of new volumes.

CLASSES AND DURATION OF COURSE.

The students attending the School are divided into three classes—a Senior Class, an Intermediate Class and a Junior Class. The subjects of study in each class are:

JUNIOR CLASS.

First Term: Common Law (Elementary Law), Criminal Law and Domestic Relations.

Second Term: Real Property, Personal Property, Bailments, Contracts, Quasi-Contracts, Sales and Suretyship.

INTERMEDIATE CLASS.

First Term: Real Property (Title and Conveyancing), Executors and Administrators, Pleading and Torts, Insurance and General Jurisprudence.

Second Term: Agency, Partnership, Carriers, Shipping, Corporations, Railroads, Bills and Notes, Trade Marks and Copyrights, and Pleading continued.

SENIOR CLASS.

First Term: Practice, Evidence, Damages, International Law, Conflict of Laws, Admiralty and General Jurisprudence.

Second Term: Equity Jurisprudence and Procedure, Legal Ethics, Constitutional Law and Interpretation.

The lectures are all after 4 P. M. A schedule of their arrangement will be furnished at the beginning of the session.

It will be seen that the full course of study extends over three years, and the Faculty are satisfied that students who have not made considerable progress in the study of law do themselves and the Law School an injury by attempting to graduate in a shorter period. Where students can afford it, they should spend three years in the study of law. But in order to meet the case of those who cannot afford this, students are permitted to enter and take the examinations of more than one class during the same term, their fitness to complete the course in less than three years being determined by their ability to pass the regular examinations at the close of each term and to comply with the other requirements for graduation. No student will, however, be permitted to complete the course in less than two years.

REGISTRATION.

All students are required when entering for each session to report at the office in person and sign the register and procure tickets of admission to the lectures. The date of signing for each session will be noted and names not upon the register will not be placed upon the class rolls. The stipulated period of attendance upon the Law School for the purpose of graduation, and for insertion in the certificate required to take the examination for admission to the bar before the Board of State Law Examiners, will be calculated from the register, and the class rolls made therefrom.

EXAMINATIONS, THESIS AND DEGREES.

The Law School confers the degree of Bachelor of Laws on students who have attended the course of lectures to all three classes, have attained the required standard at the examinations, have submitted to the Faculty a satisfactory thesis, and argued the required number of cases in the Moot Court

There are six examinations each session—two of the Senior Class, two of the Intermediate Class and two of the Junior Class. Each class has an examination at the close of each term. The examinations are oral, or by printed questions to be answered in writing. Each examination is valued at 100. In order to graduate, the student must attain a grade of at least three-fourths on the questions propounded on each distinct subject at each examination, but a student having failed in only one subject will be graduated, provided his grade in the subject in which he has failed is not less than one-half and his general average is $87\frac{1}{2}$. In marking all examination papers, grammar and composition will be taken into account.

The subjects for the theses for the next session will be given to the students in November, 1904, and they will be expected to hand them in to the Faculty by April 1, 1905. The attention of the students is called to the fact that the Faculty will require a high standard of excellence in the thesis.

The Faculty reserve to themselves the right to refuse a degree to any student writing an unsatisfactory thesis or neglecting the preparation and argument of the Moot Court cases, whatever grade he may have attained at the examinations.

MOOT COURT.

The Moot Court will meet once a week during the session—generally on Friday evenings at 8 o'clock—and will be presided over by the Director, W. Calvin Chesnut.

Each student enrolled as a member of the Senior Class is required to satisfactorily prepare and argue at least one case in the Moot Court during the academic session.

Timely notice of the assignments of the students for the arguments will be posted on the bulletin board of the Law School. Four students will be assigned at each session, and will be furnished by the Director with copies of the pleadings or papers in the case selected for argument and a copy of the papers will also be posted on the bulletin board.

Whenever convenient other members of the Senior Class are invited to attend the session of the Court. At the conclusion of the formal argument by the students assigned, expressions of the views of others attending the argument will be invited by the Director. In this manner it is hoped that the work of the court will be rendered more interesting and instructive not only to those students formally assigned to argue the case, but also to the others attending. At the beginning of the session, one or more lectures will be delivered by the Director to the Senior Class on the method of examination of legal questions for oral arguments and preparation of briefs.

PRIZES AND HONORABLE MENTION.

The Faculty will at the close of the Session 1904-1905 award two prizes—

1. A prize of $100 to that member of the graduating class attaining the highest grade in the six examinations.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR ATTENDING OTHER LECTURES.

PRIVILEGES, COURTS, ETC.

Any student entered in one or two classes has the privilege, if he sees fit, to be present at the lectures in the other class or classes; and any graduate of the school has the privilege of attending all the lectures for the session next ensuing his graduation.

There are nine courts in almost continuous session in Baltimore during the entire scholastic year; the students have unusual opportunities to learn the law by attendance on the courts. Students are advised to attend the courts when they can conveniently do so, and to give careful attention and thought to the proceedings.

There is a Literary Society attached to the School, known as the Maryland University Debating Society, which is organized and conducted entirely by the students.

It has been the practice heretofore for students to form Quiz Clubs, composed of from five to ten members. They can, if properly conducted, be made very improving, and students are advised to form them.

The Annual Commencement for the Session of 1903-1904 took place in Ford's Opera House at 8 p. m., June 6th, 1904. John Brooks Leavitt, L. L. D., of the New York Bar, delivered the annual address. Bernard Carter, Esq., Provost of the University, addressed the graduates in conferring the degrees and awarded the prizes.
